

What others have said about Wanda's music and ministry

Wanda Viola's music is tender and deep. It is an understatement to say she tapped into the deepest parts of her soul to compose honest, transparent and healing lyrics. If you're ready to find your own healing from childhood traumas, Wanda's songs will guide you there. They communicate the innocence of a child seeking after the Father...the posture where healing begins. —Rachel Laughton

At the 2007 Mt. Hermon Christian Writer's Conference I was part of a late night poet/songwriter's group after one of the main sessions. We had gotten together to share our writing with each other. As Wanda played her song I immediately had a clear picture in the Spirit of an innocent little girl sitting in the lap of her heavenly Father and being totally accepted and loved. I did not know any of Wanda's history, but the song spoke to me of trust, purity, innocence and love between a father and daughter. Very beautiful! Patrick Craig, Harp & Bowl Ministries

Hi Wanda, Your CD arrived yesterday. I listened to some of it on the way to work and will continue to listen on my drive home. Love you. Love your music. It sounds very clear, great articulation, I like the level of reverb and like your accompaniment very much. The words, of course, make me cry, but I am also very comforted and uplifted by them. The way you start out stating your hurt, betrayal, pain....then turn it to Jesus....is so beautiful. I believe God will use these songs to heal many "little girls and boys". Love you. Barb

Wanda – I LOVE the CD – and your words written on the back. It is a wonderful CD to listen to when I am alone & can think – about the past, the present & God's love throughout. The CD brings me peace & I want to thank you for it. Lorrie

"Wanda is a true healer that heals first and foremost through her love and attention to people in need. She helped my family at a time when many doctors were either too busy or too empty to take care of us. She applied her curiosity and care to a problem and made a real difference in the quality of our lives. We are very grateful to her. Wanda works from the spirit but attunes to forms of mental and physical ailments and respects a holistic approach to healing - she will sing, make green smoothies, and cut flowers from her garden if it serves a purpose! Go to her when you feel stuck and uncared for, go to her when you feel you need someone to listen, and go to her if you are curious about spiritual health and guidance." Rita

Years ago I gave a woman named W-- your CD because she'd had a difficult background. She later told me they (#1 & 3) were soothing, uplifting, affirming, encouraging, peaceful melodies and words.

She said, "It's just what I need right now to help fight my fear." I wanted you to know about it. J---

This wonderful CD comes from the heart of a woman who has known the healing love of Jesus as few others have. This music can spiritually comfort and uplift in a powerful way. I sense a strong anointing of the Holy Spirit on Wanda's music. She expresses so beautifully how God can take the hurt and betrayal in a person's heart and bring healing and restoration as no other can. My prayer is that God will use these songs to pour out "His Healing Love" on the many children and adults who have suffered abuse from adults they trusted to love and care for them. Only Jesus has known such suffering and only He can understand and touch these little broken hearts. —Barbara Moore

I have been looking back over this five year journey and seeing how God led me to so many different people, educational resources and training programs, and healing ministries - and wove them all together to bring me to wholeness.

Your music, testimony, and personal encouragement have been such important blessings to me. Your music provided critical attunement as I was recovering my repressed memories of abuse and often felt emotionally overwhelmed and alone.

I remember days playing your songs over and over again, giving me words to the unspeakable and reminding me of Jesus' presence and understanding of what I was experiencing.

I'm sure you have heard this before, but often it was like you were putting words to what I was feeling in my heart and singing them to the Lord for me. Thank you for "being there" for me. Knowing how much I needed people there for me, calls me to share my healing and be there for others. Mary Anne Quinn

Your heart is so precious. Thank you for your beautiful and deeply touching poetry. You have a very special healing heart you extend through your poems similar to mine. I believe the greatest poems and songs come from a heart that has truly experienced pain, sorrow and great difficulties in their lives because they know and understand and connect at a different level of God's abiding love and great grace. Bless your hands that they may write what God has written upon your heart for others. You are a miracle, blessing and gift.

Your CD's are far beyond anything I expected because they are so personal & minister to hurts telling of the Fathers great love for us!

Some of the really touching songs get right to the nitty gritty of the problem & then they offer the solution which is awesome. Other songs express the unconditional love of the Father for the hurting child. Many people need to know that love.

Your most devoted fan, B—

I am so happy to see your project coming to fruition!!! A few days ago, I found myself singing a lovely tune and couldn't place it immediately. Then, I realized it was your song. It was such a blessing to know that the healing touch of your music is in my heart. My little child is very grateful to you. God bless those who seek peace through your music. —Wanda B.

Wanda shares the cry of her heart expressing the pain she has faced through abuse in a tender way. She doesn't leave the hearer to dwell on the pain, but leads them to One who loves them truly and can provide comfort. This is only the first of 6 CD's and each one progresses through the healing process. The 6th CD has a compilation of songs from all the others. It is my favorite. Recommended for those who have been abused, and for those seeking to understand and minister to them.

5.0 out of 5 stars Ideal for foster and adopted children
 Reviewed in the United States on September 19, 2010
 I teach a special Sunday School class for children ages 6 to 12 who have been adopted from tragic beginnings. It is very difficult for children who have been abused, neglected, or abandoned to trust a new mother. And it is nearly impossible for them to trust God, whom they cannot see. After teaching the Bible story, I have used Wanda's CD "Learning to Trust" as background music as the children draw or paint. It is amazing to see children who are often noncompliant become quiet as they listen and are soothed.
