

Ministries that have blessed me

I would like to introduce you to various ministries that helped me on my healing journey. I personally have had some contact with each of these ministries and/or ministry leaders (either through conferences, discussions, or personal ministry). They were very helpful to me and currently have resources for survivors, prayer ministers, and counselors.

Healing from Abuse:

Elijah House, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho (Founded by John & Paula Sandford)

www.elijahhouse.org

The Sandfords pioneered spiritual healing, combining the Word of God with the Holy Spirit's leading going to the root issues. The staff offers personal counseling, seminars, and training for prayer ministry. They have many books and CD's from the Sandfords and various staff members.

Ellel Ministries (Peter and Fiona Horrobin in the UK)

<http://ellel.org/usa/>

<https://ellel.org/uk/about/our-centres>

Ellel Ministries offers personal prayer, training, and other resources.

Brent and I met with Peter twice for lunch when he was in the USA. He's a very caring person and great communicator.

Intercession & Healing by Fiona Horrobin is excellent. She teaches about working with prayer teams.

Lynda is a remarkable story of a powerful healing at a medical conference of a young woman who fell off a cliff and was in chronic pain for three years. Testimonies of medical professionals who watched the two hour prayer session is included. God is mighty!

HeartSync Ministries (Father Andrew Miller) We've attended two of these training sessions and I've been an intern for one year (Brent for 3 years). This wonderful program includes many of the best Christian biblical and Spirit-led approaches in the USA Brent and I have learned in the past 30 years while adding another profound component of healing our broken hearts. Dr. Karl and Charlotte Lehman www.kclehman.com Dr. Karl Lehman, a Christian psychiatrist, and his wife, Charlotte, speak on the development of the brain and the impact of trauma. He started with the healing found in what was first known as Theophostic Prayer (now Transformation Prayer Ministry) and took it further by asking Jesus to be present to the client from the beginning of the session so that the person's capacity to face traumas as they surface will increase. This is known as Immanuel Prayer. You will find many wonderful free resources here.

The Life Model (Shepherd's House Inc.) Pasadena, CA

http://www.lifemodel.org/info.php?page=SHBoard_exe

The book Living from the Heart Jesus Gave You showed me the difference between Trauma A (what we didn't receive as infants or children) and Trauma B (the abuse that happened). We heal differently from both. Dr. James Wilder and the team at Shepherd's House started the Life Model and THRIVE conferences. Their small group exercises and programs help to build the 19 joy skills we may have lacked growing up.

Pastoral Care Ministries (founded by Leanne Payne)

<https://ministriesofpastoralcare.com/>

Leanne had a special prayer and speaking ministry to those who have been sexually abused and broken, especially those in homosexuality.

She wrote two excellent books you can read or pass on to a pastor or friend who knows someone who is struggling with gender issues to see how healing prayer changes hearts and lives: Healing of the Homosexual and The Broken Image

Redeemed Lives (Mario Bergner)

<http://redeemedlives.gutensite.net/Mario-Bergner>

I met Mario at a Leanne Payne conference. He wrote Setting Love in Order, the powerful story of his journey out of homosexuality. This book showed me how Jesus heals us one day at a time, forgiving one person at a time—leading us to deep healing of our souls. This book isn't just for people who are homosexuals, though it gave me deep insights to the struggles some people have, but it showed me how Jesus can heal anything we bring to Him.

Restoring the Foundations International Training Center (Founders: Chester and Betsy Kylstra)

<https://www.restoringthefoundations.org>

+1 (828) 696-9075

Lee and Cindi Whitman are the directors and have moved the center from North Carolina to Nashville, TN. They offer prayer ministry and training.

Training Book: Restoring the Foundations

TPM: Transformation Prayer Ministry (Dr. Ed Smith)

<https://www.transformationprayer.org>

Dr. Smith's ministry explains how to invite Jesus to show the client the root of a difficulty, then to reveal the lie, and have Jesus speak truth to replace the lie. He offers training and resources.

For those who are survivors of SRA (Satanic Ritual Abuse) or work with those who are DID:

C.A.R.E., Inc., Baldwin, MI (Cheryl Knight and Jo Getzinger)

www.care1.org

They offer intensive prayer for severe abuse (including SRA) and sponsor THRIVE Conferences. They also have a community of survivors who live near each other for support and healing.

Restoration in Christ Ministries (Founded by Diane [current director] and her graduated-to-heaven husband, Dr. Tom R. Hawkins)

www.rcm-usa.org

Diane offers training, seminars, and webinars for therapists, pastors, counselors, and survivors to understand the reason how trauma causes dissociation and how a person can heal from it. Diane and her team focus on people who have DID (Dissociative Identity Disorder, formerly MPD) from experiencing SRA. They have various books/CD's, prayers, and training manuals for survivors, therapists, pastors, and prayer ministers. The Cosmic Hierarchy paper and CD set by Dr. Tom R. Hawkins give an excellent and detailed biblical foundation for people to understand the more complicated spiritual higher level entities found when healing survivors of SRA.
